

SPINtern Induction Day

Monday 27 June 2016
09:30 – 15:00

Satellite Applications Catapult
Electron Building, Fermi Avenue, Harwell, Oxfordshire, OX11 0QR

Time	Session
09:30 – 10:00	Arrival, registration and refreshments
10:00 – 10:30	Welcome, Introduction to SPIN, Space Sector Overview Kathie Bowden, UK Space Agency and Institute of Environmental Analytics
10:30 – 10:50	New Space, Small and Pocket Spacecraft Chris Brunskill, Satellite Applications Catapult
10:50 – 11:05	A SPINtern Perspective and a Glimpse of the Future Aleix Megias - Partner and system Engineer, Open Cosmos.
11:05 – 11:20	Delivering Small Satellite Solutions Adina Gillespie - Earth Observation business manager, Surrey Satellite Technology Ltd.
11:20 – 11:35	Coffee Break
11:35 – 11:50	Ensuring Space Technology is Insured David Wade – Space underwriter, Atrium Space Insurance Consortium.
11:50 – 12:05	Earth Observation Data – Putting it to Work John Bevington - Managing director, ImageCat Ltd.
12:05 – 12:20	From Big Data to Useful Information Jon Blower - Director of science, Institute for Environmental Analytics.
12:20 – 12:35	Careers in Downstream Satellite Applications Michael Lawrence, Business development director, Deimos Space UK Ltd.
12:35 – 13:00	IUU Demonstration (Illegal Unreported and Unregulated fishing) Joanna Hart, Satellite Applications Catapult.
13:00– 13:45	Lunch
13:45 – 14:45	Overview and Tour of RAL Space – R100 Sarah Beardsley, RAL Space
15:00	Depart